Why Experience the Rhine/Main Rivers

You want to immerse in the culture of your destination, enjoy those one-of-a-kind experiences, consume the local cuisine, and have the exclusive luxury in an unhurried, relaxing, yet adventurous, setting.

With a smaller vessel, usually only about 200 passengers, river cruises provide a more intimate setting.

River cruises dock right in the heart of the most remarkable cities, so you can stroll the history, culture, and hidden gems of your destination.

Just imagine biking your way through a quaint village in France, or Germany. Castle views from Basel to Nuremberg - Don't just view them, you can hike or bike to them. Literally walk in the footsteps of world history.

With a river cruise, you spend more time at your destination, yet visit more than one country in one week without packing and unpacking. The perfect balance of culture, adventure and relaxation.

And don't forget the cuisine....So much to see, yet even more to eat.

Your Itinerary

Embarking the ship in Basel, Switzerland, we'll head up through France and into Germany. Cruising the Rhine River, connecting over to the Main (pronounced "Mine" in English), and ending on the Main-Danube Canal. This cruise will offer us the opportunity to visit 10 cities, in 3 countries.

France

Parlez-vous français? Non? Well, no worries. A good translation app can do wonders to help you navigate the luscious countryside of France, and its mouthwatering cafes and menus. For its food, wine, and historic sights, we love this country for all the right reasons.

Wine and France go hand-in-hand, and if you haven't had a bowl of French onion soup, you're seriously missing out. Whether you're stopping at a bakery in the morning for a fresh croissant and cafe au lait, a light lunch of a croque monsieur or a full 3-course French dinner, you will not be disappointed.

Strasbourg, the capital city of the Alsace region and a charming city for a day trip. We'd recommend the Cave des Hospices for a wine tour and light beverage during the afternoon.

If wine tasting isn't your idea of a relaxing afternoon, there is no shortage of other soothing activities in Strasbourg. The Parc de l'Orangerie, Parc de la Citadelle and the botanical gardens are all equally serene places for an afternoon walk or bike ride.

Germany

Traveling to Germany usually takes tourists to Berlin, Munich and other metropolitan areas. On a river cruise on the Rhine, however, you'll experience a whole new side of the country—one that is more traditional and inviting.

Cruising down the Rhine and the Main, you'll see cultural hubs as well as quaint cities you may not otherwise experience.

Walk through thousands of years of history in the medieval towns of Rothenburg, Bamberg and Miltenberg. Revel in the architectural gems on display—the Würzburg Residenz and Mannheim Baroque Palace. Indulge your inner child with visits to Siegfried's Mechanical Musical Instrument Museum and the Speyer Technical Museum.
